To meet the challenge of global competition in education, research and innovation, these institutions have decided to pool their world-class teaching and research capabilities.

The project is original in that it combines the best of the three strands of French higher education and research: universities, research organizations and grandes écoles .

Affiliated under common governance, the institutions retain their identity and resources while coordinating their activities in a shared vision of research, teaching and innovation.

The 18 founding members:

Two universities:

- UVSQ
- Université Paris-Sud

Seven research organizations:

- CNRS (National Center for Scientific Research)
- CEA (Alternative Energies and Atomic Energy Commission)
- IHES (Institute of Advanced Scientific Studies)
- Inra (National Institute of Agricultural Research)
- Inria (Institute for Research in Computer Science and Automation)
- Onera (National Aerospace Research Center)
- Inserm (French Institute of Health and Medical Research)

Nine grandes écoles (prestigious higher education institutes):

- AgroParisTech

- CentraleSupelec
- HEC
- École polytechnique
- ENS Paris-Saclay
- Ensta ParisTech
- Genes
- Institute Mines-Télécom
- IOGS (Institute d'optique Graduate School)

One associated university:

- Université d’Evry Val d’Essonne
